DAY ONE - WEDNESDAY, 25TH JUNE, 2025

The much anticipated Ablaze Conference commenced with a memorable opening ceremony on the 25th of June, 2025 at the Anglican Church, UG. The stage was set, the auditorium was charged and the hearts of the members of PENSA Legon were hungry for another move of the spirit. From the onset of the service, an electrifying moment of prayer launched the congregation into the deep as members were charged up in an awesome time of prayer.

The expectations of the attendees of this year's Ablaze Conference were heightened as Pastor Fedalis Yeboah, the Resident PENSA Campus Pastor and speaker for the day, took the stage.

With his sermon exposing the theme of the conference, 'Empowered and Unleashed', Pastor Yeboah stirred up the atmosphere with his spirit filled and uplifting words. He encouraged the congregation to explore and be global people with global mindset.

He then stated emphatically that, "We ought to think beyond our local spheres and wait for the Holy Spirit empowerment for global impact." As he spoke with passion, he expounded on the extraordinary empowerment given to us by the Holy Spirit to do mind blowing and magnificent things.

DAY ONE CONT'D - WEDNESDAY, 25TH JUNE, 2025

. Reaching the climax of his awesome ministration, Pastor Yeboah highlighted how tongue-speaking Christians are containers and carriers of tremendous power and emphasized on the need for this power to be released.

The atmosphere of power was heightened as the congregation burst out into a time of unleashing the tremendous power within through fervent prayers. Lives were touched, chains and limitations were broken, lives were set free and potentials were unleashed. There was no better way to launch the conference as everyone in attendance was left hungry for more of the Holy Spirit and anticipating more power in the days to come.

DAY TWO - THURSDAY, 26TH JUNE, 2025

The second day of the conference commenced with its attendants prepared for another outpouring of the spirit. The way was paved, all hearts were eager for a shift and the presence of the Lord was tangibly felt.

- A TIME SPENT IN CONTINUOUS PRAYER AND WORSHIP.

Wherever the Spirit of God is, supernatural encounters manifest and this was seen throughout the service as the worship session from Heralds of Praise, the choir for PENSA Legon, ignited a spark of glory in the atmosphere. The prophetic was released as a member received a prophetic song and sang to the hearing of the quiet yet charged atmosphere.

One of the greatest highlights of the night was the powerful ministration of the invited guest Mrs. Ama Antwi-Bosiako Ampofo, which elevated the atmosphere to new heights.

DAY TWO - THURSDAY, 26TH JUNE, 2025

The Christ Church auditorium was electrified as Pastor Asiedu took the stage, ablaze with the Holy Spirit. With passion and conviction, he delivered a powerful message on 'Waiting', anchored on Isaiah 40:28-30. Despite the title's simplicity, Pastor Asiedu masterfully unpacked the profound concept of waiting on God with remarkable clarity and depth.

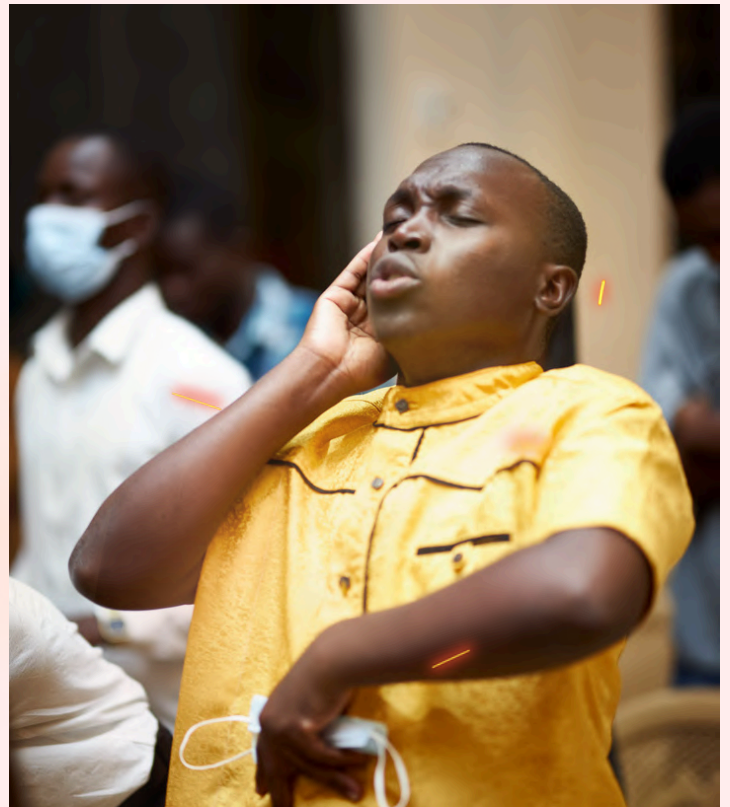

Speaking expressively on the power of tarrying he made a profound statement that, "Supernatural speed is to wait and not to run as the outside world does." Pastor Philip Pascal Asiedu soared in his charismatic sermon, urging the congregation not to depart the campus without a clear spiritual blueprint. "Strength is defined as weight in the spirit and not just muscles" Pastor Asiedu said, as he continually emphasized the need for waiting and building up the spirit man of every individual.

MORE POWER! MORE OF YOU HOLY SPIRIT!

The congregation was immersed in fervent prayers as the sermon culminated in an unforgettable prayer charge: 'You need to carry God.' We sang, we prayed, we praised, but above all, we carried God. What an incredible way to conclude Day 2 of Ablaze Conference 2025. The hearts of men departed the auditorium echoing these words: 'More Power! More of You, Holy Spirit!'

ALL NIGHT SERVICE - FRIDAY, 27TH JUNE, 2025

The atmosphere was charged with edification, mighty intercession, and restoration as the congregation poured out fervent prayers to the Lord. The auditorium's aura soared as Heralds of Praise took the stage, unleashing a new level of praise and worship. The congregation was electrified, eagerly anticipating a mighty move of God as the glory descended in a mysterious fog.

The PENSA Legon choir, Heralds of Praise, ministered a powerful, spirit-filled song, "Satisfy Me," which had been received by Elder David Awinbora, the current prayer secretary, during last year's Ablaze Conference. The ecstatic and surreal moment intensified the charged atmosphere. A remarkable time of testimonies followed, with the congregation expressing awe and wonder at the extraordinary deeds God had done in the lives of some members. The service continued to build in spiritual momentum as Minister Obed took the stage, singing spiritual songs that further heightened the congregation's hunger for God.

SPEAKER: PASTOR SAMUEL KWAKU ASARE

As Pastor Samuel Kwaku Asare, the guest speaker, took the stage, the anticipation of the gathered saints reached its peak.

With powerful revelations and prophetic declarations, Pastor Asare delivered a sermon titled 'Empowered and Unleashed,' aligning with the conference theme.

Some key highlights from his message included:

- The importance of humility.
- The need for believers, as 'kings,' to seek God's glory, referencing Proverbs 25:2: 'The more you search, the more you find, and whatever you find becomes yours.'

As the sermon reached its climax, the atmosphere was electric, and the congregation's spirits were ablaze. A lengthy yet captivating prayer session ensued, culminating in a mighty impartation and activation of spiritual gifts. The Holy Spirit's power surged through the auditorium, turning it upside down in a transformative moment."

THE CLIMAX

To the glory of God, five people were baptized with the Holy Ghost. It was an encounter too vivid beyond the description of words. Indeed, this generation shall see revival and it has begun with PENSA Legon.
